

American Society of Safety Professionals | Alaska Chapter

The Fourteenth Annual Occupational Safety Summit

October 22 and 23, 2019
The Hotel Captain Cook, Anchorage, AK

The Alaska Chapter of ASSP is proud to present a strong and full program agenda this year, featuring the latest updates from around the industry and the country. The selected presentations will address an array of health and safety concerns industries have to contend with and provide essential training and information right here in Alaska. Together we aim to help you protect workers, the general public, and the environment.

Keynote Speaker: Jose Perez

Corporate Senior Manager of EHS

"Purposeful Safety: A Calling". The safety professional's career takes many turns and at times even detours. In a profession that focuses on caring for others, is important that we make time to reflect on our WHY, especially at critical times of our journey. The session will focus on the journey of a "Giver" that found the safety profession, and ultimately found a way to give and serve others.

Program Highlights:

Diana Stegall, CSP, CFPS, ARM, SMS CPCU,
President American Society of Safety Professionals

"The Future of Safety - Where We're Headed"

Diana will present on the direction the Society sees the Safety Profession is developing and how we can all best prepare for new challenges ahead.

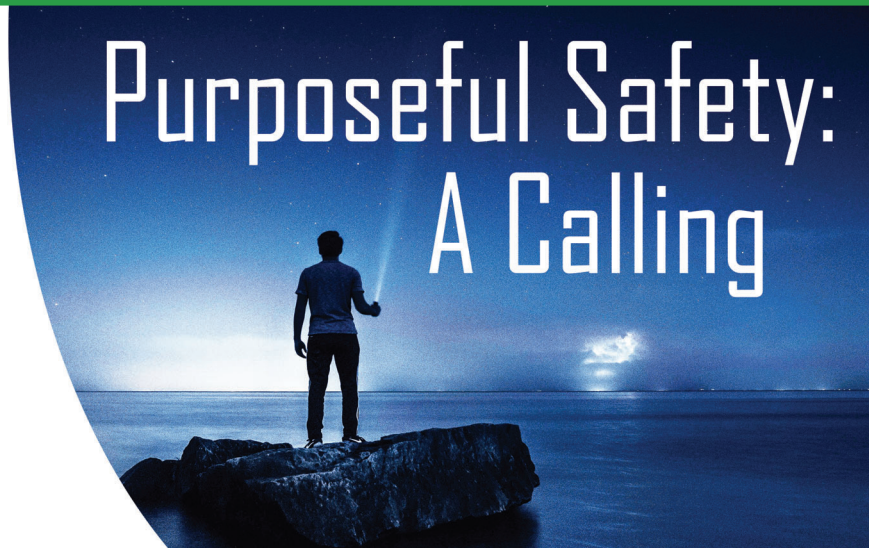

James Boretti
CSP, ASSP RVP

James will illustrate his personal story in "Safety - Lived for Success". Motivations: for safety professionals in our organizations: why do they do it.

Joshua Franklin
MBA, CSP, SMS, CET, CPCU, ARM

Joshua will kick off day two with "Stuck in Safety, Breaking Through Your Career Plateau". Be inspired and find new direction in your career!
